

CONSTITUTION

R.V. VANSCHOICK LACEY POST 94 – LACEY, WA THE AMERICAN LEGION DEPARTMENT OF WASHINGTON

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in all wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state, and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this Post shall be R.V. VanSchoick Lacey Post 94, having received its Charter from the National Organization of The American Legion and being incorporated as a not-for-profit corporation under and subject to the laws of the State of Washington. Located in Lacey, Washington.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSES

The purpose of this Post shall be to promote the principles and policies as set forth in the foregoing preamble, and the national and departmental Constitutions and separate Bylaws of the American Legion. Nothing in this Constitution or the separate Post 94 Bylaws may conflict with the National Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE III – NATURE

Section 1. This Post shall be a civilian organization with no member being addressed by his/her Service title in any Post meeting with membership.

Section 2. This Post shall be non-political and non-partisan and not used for the promotion of a person seeking public preferment or office.

Section 3. This Post shall be organized and operated as a nonprofit organization under the laws of the United States and the State of Washington.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY

Section 1. Eligibility requirements for membership shall be as set forth in the National Constitution of the American Legion.

Section 2. There shall be no form or class of membership except active membership, with dues paid annually or for life.

Section 3. No person may be a member of more than one Post at any one time.

Section 4. Each Post shall judge its own membership, subject to restrictions against membership in organizations advocating the overthrow of the U.S. Government. Procedures for applications, transfers, and expulsions shall follow American Legion guidelines.

Section 6. Annual dues shall be established as prescribed by National and Department regulations.

Section 7. Resignations must be submitted in writing to the Adjutant.

Section 8. Discrimination or harassment based on sex, race, religion, national origin, handicap, age, or sexual orientation will not be tolerated.

ARTICLE V – OFFICERS

Section 1. All Officers as designated shall be elected annually. Once confirmed, all Officers shall be certified to the Department Adjutant not more than fifty (50) days or less than ten (10) days prior to the Annual Department Convention. Such Officers shall be responsible for upholding the principles of the American Legion and effecting the Post alignment to decisions and regulations set down by duly constituted bodies of the American Legion.

ARTICLE VI – FINANCE

Section 1. The revenues of this Post shall be derived from annual dues of membership and from such other sources as may be approved by the Post membership.

Section 2. National and Department membership dues shall be transmitted to the Department as prescribed by National and Department regulations.

BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in all wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state, and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this Post shall be R.V. VanSchoick Lacey Post 94, having received its Charter from the National Organization of The American Legion and being incorporated as a not-for-profit corporation under and subject to the laws of the State of Washington. Located in Lacey, Washington.

American Legion. Nothing in these ByLaws or the separate Post Constitution may conflict with the National Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE III – NATURE

Section 1. This Post shall be a civilian organization with no member being addressed by his/her Service title in any Post meeting with membership.

Section 2. This Post shall be non-political and non-partisan and not used for the promotion of a person seeking public preferment or office.

Section 3. This Post shall be organized and operated as a nonprofit organization under the laws of the United States and the State of Washington.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Any person shall be eligible for membership in the Post who meets the eligibility requirements as established in the National Constitution of The American Legion.

Section 2. The only class of membership shall be that of Active Member and dues shall be paid annually or for life.

Section 3. No person may be a member at any time of more than one Post.

Section 4. The Post shall be the judge of its own membership EXCEPT THAT no person who is a member of an organization which has for its aim the overthrow of the United States Government by force or violence or who subscribes to the principles of any group opposed to our form of government shall be eligible to become or to remain a member.

(a) Each applicant for membership in this Post shall submit a fully executed official membership application or transfer form, together with the current dues, for a vote by the Post membership.

(b) Transfers to Other Posts. A member in good standing of this Post may transfer his or her membership to any other Post by submitting to the Adjutant of this Post an application for transfer signed by the member and the Adjutant of the Post to which transfer is desired. No refund of dues shall be made by this Post, provided that if the State and collected by the Post are not yet submitted to the Finance Officer of the Department of Washington.

(c) Transfers from other Posts. A member in good standings of any other Post may apply for membership in R.V. VanSchoick Post 94 by notifying the Adjutant of this Post and signing an application for transfer. Such application shall be delivered to the Adjutant of the Post from which transfer is desired; the name of such member shall be referred to the Membership Committee. If the member making such transfer has paid his/her dues in full for the current year to the Post from which transfer is made, no further payment of dues shall be required for such current year for such member, provided, that if the Post from which transfer is made had not paid to the Finance Officer of the Department of Washington the amount of the State and National per capita for such Member, the amount thereof shall be paid to the Finance Officer of this Post by such other Post.

(d) No person who has been charged by a Post with violation which could lead to expulsion or suspension shall be permitted to transfer to another Post within the Department until those charges have been settled.

(e) When charges have been served, the Post shall file a copy of charges with the Department Adjutant. When those charges have been settled, a copy of the resolution of such charges shall be filed with the Department Adjutant.

(f) No person who has been expelled by a Post shall be admitted to membership in another Post without the consent of the expelling Post. The EXCEPTION is where such consent has been asked for and denied by the expelling Post, an appeal may be made to the Executive Committee of the Department for permission to be admitted to membership in another Post; and such person shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

Section 5. Dues. The annual dues shall be established by the membership. Proposals for a change in the dues will be considered prior to the month of April and when approved the change will be transmitted to Department for an effective date of the following year. EXCEPT that should National or Department increase per capita, then dues shall be increased to the next five dollar increment above the per capita increase.

Section 6. Delinquencies. A member whose dues for the current year have not been paid by January first shall be classed as delinquent. If his/her dues are paid on or before February first, he/she shall be automatically reinstated. If he/she is still delinquent after February, he/she shall be suspended from all privileges. If he/she is still under suspension on June thirtieth (30th) of such year, his/her membership in this Post and The American Legion shall be forfeited. A member so suspended or whose membership has been so forfeited may be reinstated to active membership in good standing by vote of the Post and payment of current dues for the year in which reinstatement occurs. Provided, however, that the Post may waive the provisions thereof, upon payment of dues for the year in which reinstatement occurs, with reference to former members who have been prevented from the payment of dues by reason of active military service.

Section 7. Life Membership. Life Membership may be granted by this Post to its members, but once granted, the Post shall be responsible for payment of such members to the National and Department per capita as long as such members do not transfer out of the Post or resign from The American Legion membership, provided however, that any such member may be suspended or expelled for the same causes as herein provided for the suspension or expulsion of any other member.

Section 8. Resignation. Any member desiring to resign from the Post shall submit his/her resignation in writing to the Adjutant, who shall present it to the Executive Board for action.

ARTICLE V – OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of the Post shall be: Commander, First Vice Commander, Second Vice-Commander, Adjutant, Sergeant-at-Arms, Finance Officer, Judge Advocate, Chaplain, Resource Officer, Communications Officer and Historian. These officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these Bylaws and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the Post. One member at large shall be selected by the Membership to serve on the Executive Board; they shall not be a currently serving Post Officer.

Section 2. At the regular meeting held on the second Friday in February, a Nominating Committee of three members shall be appointed by the Commander. It shall be the duty of this committee to nominate candidates for the offices to be filled at the annual meeting in May. The Nominating committee shall report at the regular meetings in March and April. Before the election at the annual meeting in May, additional nominations from the floor shall be permitted.

Section 3. Nominations for the Office of Commander, First Vice Commander, Second Vice-Commander, Adjutant, Sergeant-at-Arms, Finance Officer, Judge Advocate, Chaplain, Resource Officer, and Historian are for a one-year term. The Communications Officer shall be by appointment of the Commander with input from the Executive Board.

Section 4. The officers shall be elected by secret ballot if there is more than one candidate at the meeting in May of each year. Members attending the meeting establish the quorum and the candidate with the most votes wins the election and their term of office shall begin at the close of the Department Convention.

Section 5. Eligibility. Any member of this Post in good standing shall be eligible to serve any office. All Nominations must be made and seconded by someone other than the proposed candidate and by a fellow member that is not the proposed candidate.

Section 6. No newly elected Post Officer, regardless of the date of installation, may assume their duties of office earlier than the first day following the closure of the annual Department Convention.

Section 7. Attendance of Officers. If any officer is absent for three consecutive meetings of the Post, the Commander shall make a report thereof to the Executive Board. In the event the Executive Board shall not find that such officer was unavoidably absent on account of sickness, urgent business engagements connected with The American Legion, or other good cause, the sufficiency of which shall be determined by the Executive Board, the office of such absence shall be declared vacant.

Section 8. Vacancies. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in an Elective Office of the Post, the Commander shall, at the next regular meeting, announce the existence of such vacancy and call for nominations for such office, and at the next succeeding regular meeting, nomination to be reopened and vacancy filled, to serve until the next annual meeting of the Post or until the successor is elected and installed. The Commander may appoint a member to fill the position if there is 4 months or less of the unexpired term with the approval of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE VI – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The Post Commander. The Post Commander shall preside at all meetings of the Post and of the Post Executive Committee. He/ She shall countersign vouchers prepared by the Post Adjutant or Finance Officer. He/ She shall perform all other duties usually devolving upon the chief officer of an organization.

Section 2. The Post Vice-Commanders. The First Vice Commander shall exercise all of the duties of the Commander in the absence of the Commander. She/he shall also have full charge of membership growth and renewals. The Second Vice-Commander shall exercise all the duties of the Commander in the absence of both the Commander and the First Vice-Commander. The Second Vice Commander is in charge of all social events internal and external pertaining to the Post.

Section 3. Adjutant. The Adjutant shall act as Secretary at all meetings of the Post and Executive Committee; shall maintain and keep permanent books and records of the Post; shall keep an account of each member of the Post; preserve all correspondence and files belonging to the Post and Executive Board; shall send all notices as may be required of him/her; shall attest the Commander's signature to all resolutions, documents, contracts and other writings of the Post and of the Executive Board; may be paid for his/her services such sum as may be set by the Executive Board and ratified by the Post; may appoint an Assistant Adjutant who would be ratified by the Executive Committee.

Section 4. Finance Officer. The Finance Officer (FO) shall act as accountant for both the Post and ALCC. The FO shall receive and be responsible for all annual dues and all monies from donations and activities. The FO shall document both deposits and disbursements of funds. Moreover, the FO shall develop and maintain approved budgets for both the Post and ALCC and provide a monthly report to the EC and membership detailing the income and expenses. The FO shall pay all routine monthly bills upon receipt. No monies shall be transferred or withdrawn from any fund accounts without a 2/3 majority vote of a quorum of the Executive Committee members, at either a regular meeting, or a special meeting, in favor of such withdrawals; The FÓ is required to sign proper authorization for said withdrawal and shall be present at the time of withdrawal; Call a meeting of the Finance Committee as required as soon as possible after election and prior to installation of the newly elected Finance Officer; Shall perform such other duties as prescribed by the Commander or Executive Committee.

Section 5. Sergeant-at-Arms. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall have charge of entrance during the meetings. He/She shall escort visitors to the Commander, assist in the initiation of new members, aid in keeping order, and perform such other duties as usually pertain to the Office of Sergeant-at-Arms, or which may be required by the Commander.

Section 6. The Post Chaplain. The duties of the Post Chaplain shall be as defined in the office as prescribed by The American Legion Officers Manual.

Section 7. The Post Historian. The duties of the Post Historian shall be to keep a complete history of the Post from its inception. He/She shall make an annual report to the Post at its annual meeting.

Section 8. Past Commanders. All Commanders retiring from office shall receive the Honorary Title of Past Commander upon the installation of their successor in office. The Past Commander who has been most recently in office shall be known as the Junior Past Commander and shall be an ex-officio member of the Executive Committee.

Section 9. Resource Officer. The Post Resource Officer shall bring to the attention of all veterans and their dependents the rights and benefits granted by law; shall utilize the Service Officer's manual for basic direction; shall utilize all services and agencies available to assist veterans and dependents.

Section 10. Judge Advocate. The Judge Advocate shall read over all agreements and contracts the Post wishes to enter as an organization. The purpose of this is to help ensure that all agreements or contracts are both legal, and in line with the purpose/intent of the Post. The Judge Advocate cannot void a contract/agreement, but can send it back to the EB, with recommendations. The Judge Advocate can bypass a vote to immediately table any motion, or contract/agreement until the next meeting. This is to allow the Judge Advocate time to research said motion, or contract/agreement.

The Judge Advocate can, at the written request of 10 members in good standing, put forth a motion of lack of confidence in the accounting of the finances, of any part(s), of the Post. If a motion is made, and passed, the Post Commander shall arrange for a financial review to be done. The Judge Advocate cannot be on any signature card. The Judge Advocate is the Post parliamentarian. In the event of a matter of disciplinary action the Judge Advocate shall open the proceedings in accordance with the National By-Laws of the American Legion. Unless specifically specified all votes require a simple majority of the quorum to pass.

Section 11. Communications Officer. The Communication Officer (CO) will oversee the Post's on-line presence, any advertisements, or postings. Moreover, the CO is the Post's webmaster and will update Post items as needed, or as directed by the Executive Board, and/or the Commander. The CO will work with the Adjutant in writing and sending articles to the Department for publication.

ARTICLE VII – SECURITY

Security Requirements. When the sum of the Post funds exceeds $50,000, any Officer of the Post and Committee Chair regularly handling the Post's monies shall be properly bonded as necessary with a good and solvent security bonding or insurance company to cover double the average annual funds handled by the individual(s).

ARTICLE VIII – MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular meetings. The regular meetings of the Post shall be held on the 2nd Friday of each month (except July) all year long unless canceled or postponed. The regular meeting held on the 2nd Friday in May shall be known as the annual meeting and shall be for the purpose of electing officers and for any other business that may arise. If the situation warrants, meetings can be conducted virtually with at least three (3) days' notice to the membership.

Section 2. Special meetings. Special meetings may be called by the Commander, or a majority of the Executive Committee, or upon the written request of five (5) members of the Post. The purpose of the meeting shall be stated in the call and will only cover the issue. Except in case of emergency, at least three (3) days' written or electronic notice shall be given.

Section 3. Quorum. Members present at a Post meeting shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. Executive special meeting. An Executive Board special meeting may be called for by the Commander, or by the majority of EB members. This meeting can be called in either physical attendance, or as emails. A quorum is needed in either case. When an email emergency meeting is called, all votes must be unanimous in order to pass. A single no vote will cause the motion to be defeated.

Section 5. Order of Business. (Can be modified as appropriate)

- (1) Call to Order
- (2) Present Colors

- (3) Prayer
- (4) POW/MIA Empty Chair
- (5) Memorial to Departed Comrades
- (6) Headcount of Members for quorum
- (7) Reading of minutes of previous meeting
- (8) Committee Reports
- (9) Sick call, relief and employment
- (10) Unfinished Business
- (11) New Business
- (12) Balloting on applications
- (13) The Good of The American Legion (The membership shall be permitted to make any suggestions of any kind, character, or description, save of religion or partisan politics)

Section 6. Virtual Meetings. When conditions are such that an in-person meeting is neither prudent nor practical, the Post Commander may direct that any Executive Board, Special or General Membership meetings may be held by virtual means.

ARTICLE IX – EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1. Authority. The Executive Board (EB) shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Post between meetings, fix the hour and place of meetings, make recommendations to the membership and shall perform such other duties as are specified in these Bylaws. The EB shall be subject to the orders of the membership and none of its acts shall conflict with action taken by the membership.

Section 2. Executive Board Membership. The Executive Board shall be composed of all elected officers and members appointed by the Commander and elected by the Post membership who shall be and are installed in the same manner as other Post Officers and shall hold office for a period of one year or until a successor is elected and qualified.

ARTICLE X – COMMITTEES

Section 1. Finance Committee. The Finance Committee shall be composed of the Finance Officer and other members designated by the Executive Board. A quorum (simple majority) of all installed members must be present. The Post Finance Officer shall serve as Chair of this committee. The purpose of the Finance Committee shall be to oversee the accounting procedures and methods of internal financial control as a means of protecting the financial interest of the Post at every level.

(a) It shall be the duty of this committee to prepare a budget for the upcoming fiscal year, which shall be presented for adoption or correction as soon as possible after installation of officers. The budget expenses can be no greater than the income plus any carryover from previous years.

(b) The Finance Committee may from time to time submit amendments to the budget for the current fiscal year to the Executive Board, which may be adopted by a majority vote of the members.

(c) Whenever a proposal is made at any regular or special meeting for an expenditure not covered by the budget, in the excess of Two Hundred-Fifty Dollars ($250.00), then, before its passage and allowance or rejection, the same shall be referred to the Executive Board which shall investigate the matter and determine its expediency, and shall report its approval or disapproval at the next regular meeting.

(d) The Executive Board acting as an ad hoc Post Auditing Committee, shall cause an annual financial review of the books of the Finance Officer, as well as the books of all Committees handling funds, whenever the Officer/Chairman of said committee changes.

(e) In any two consecutive fiscal years in which the Post's combined operations budget, capital budget, and all other Committee budgets exceed $50,000, it shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee/ Executive Committee to cause a Financial Review. Engaging a Certified Public Accountant to examine the Post's accounting records and render an audit report to the Post Executive Committee from that examination. Such examination is to be scheduled to coincide with the completion of the Finance Officers term of office or as conditions require.

Section 3. Standing Committees. The Standing Committees of this Post shall be as follows (can be modified as appropriate):

Rehabilitation National Security (includes Civil Defense) Americanism

Community Service and Post Activities

Children and Youth Athletic

Boys/Girls State

Scouting

Oratorical Educational

Law and Order Anti-Subversive

Nominating Committee (to start meeting in February)

Legislation (On call assistance to National and State legislation as requested)

Section 4. Ad hoc committees. Such other committees, standing or special, shall be appointed by the Commander as the membership or the Executive Committee shall from time to time deem necessary to carry on the work of the Post. The Commander shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Executive and Finance Committees.

Section 5. Vacancies. Vacancies may occur on any Committee by the death or resignation of any member and also by the failure of any member to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings without cause, and the action of the Committee or Commander in declaring such vacancy shall be conclusive, and such vacancies, other than or unexpired term as the case may be; provided, that, should such absence be for a good cause a substitute may be appointed from the members of the Post to act during such absence.

ARTICLE XI – DELEGATES

Section 1. Delegate selection. Delegates and Alternates to represent the Post at Department Conventions shall be either selected by the Post Commander or nominated and elected by a majority vote on a secret ballot, at such time as may be deemed in the best interest of the Post and Department. It is preferable for a member of the Executive Board to be selected as one of the delegates.

Section 2. Selection by vote. If a vote is called for, the member receiving the greatest number of votes shall be the Delegate, and the member receiving the next greater number of votes shall be the Alternate.

Section 3. Reimbursement. Delegates will be reimbursed for hotel room, mileage, and any function of the convention as authorized by National or State American Legion rules and/or as authorized by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XII – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Post in all cases not inconsistent with these bylaws or special rules adopted by the Post. These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Post by two-thirds (2/3) vote of members present, provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing and read to the members present at the previous regular meeting. The Bylaws were voted upon and approved by the Post membership on this 13th day of February 2026.

Signed: Terry Ponton, Commander

Signed: Larry Granish, Adjutant

Notary/Attestation By:

ARTICLE XIII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1: These Bylaws are adopted subject to the provisions of the National ByLaws of the American Legion and the Department of Washington. Any amendment to said National or Department ByLaws which conflicts with any provision hereof shall be regarded as automatically repealing or modifying this Post ByLaws to the extent of such conflict.

Section 2: These Bylaws may be amended to add provisions for future Auxillary and Legion Riders Units.

Section 3: These ByLaws may be amended at any regular Post meeting in accordance with the rules set forth herein.
